SUBJECT: MONTHLY RENT

According to an executive order from Governor Andrew Cuomo, there is a temporary pause on filing evictions for tenants in federally subsidized public housing. This is for delinquent rent only and does not include lease violations or other evictions.

The temporary pause does not excuse tenants from paying rent; rent is still due as usual. However, if you lost income due to the COVID-19 crisis and are in need of a rent adjustment, let the office know right away.

Residents who have lost their jobs should file for unemployment insurance immediately.
